Known for being glamorous, sexy, and smart it is quite puzzling as to why a lot of Russian women are still single in their country. On the other hand, those who don't want to remain single are on the lookout for foreign husbands. Just make a quick search online and you will see that there are hundreds of online dating sites nowadays that specialize in matching Russian singles with men from all around the world. In addition to online dating sites, there is quite the same number of other sites that do not just hook up people for dating but also facilitate marriage as well.

Background diversity

Far from being all young girls just out of their teens seeking an older guy to be their Prince Charming, there is quite the diversity in backgrounds among Russian singles. While the bulk is in their 20's and 30's, they are not all students. They come from a variety of backgrounds, educational attainment, and personal achievement. Not all of them are seeking for someone to help them escape rural life either; there are as much women from the cities as from the rural areas in Russia.

So what are the reasons for these women looking for love, dating, or marriage online and with foreign men?

Reason 1: Demographic Imbalance

Basically, revolutions, wars, and incarceration in gulags decade after decade have all but decimated the male population that there are now more women than men between the ages of 25 and 50. In spite of the relative lack of armed conflict in recent years, there is still an imbalance in population between men and women. This is illustrated by the huge in the life expectancy of men and women in Russia. The men have an average life expectancy of only 59 years, while the women average 73 years.

Reason 2: The Long List of Russian Men's Vices

Perhaps the life expectancy can be linked to the second reason, which is the long list of complaints that Russian women have against their men's vices. Their men smoke too much, drink too much, cheat on them without remorse, and are occasionally violent towards them. No one looks forward to this kind of treatment in a relationship, so it comes without surprise that there are a lot of girls from Russia actively seeking love elsewhere.

Reason 3: Many Russian Men's Attitude Toward Women

On top of their vices, Russian men often show no respect and concern for the well-being of their women. Most of them expect their partners to remain looking like glamorous supermodels but at the same time drown them with a barrage of grueling housework. When expected to clean, cook, and be at a man's beck and call all the time, even the most devoted wife and girlfriend will feel her beauty fade when subjected to years of such treatment.

Thus, it is no wonder that there is such a thing as a Russian singles phenomenon nowadays. This is a good thing for a guy like you who knows how to treat women well. This is your chance to show these gorgeous Russian girls that they can still have the relationship they want and deserve. Be a member of these online sites and show these girls that men like you who value not just their beauty but also their brains and independent spirit do exist.
