

The Positive and Negative Sides of Going Out with Ukrainian Ladies

Posted by Alex Vidal on January 7, 2014 in Ukrainian Women

Ukrainian ladies are known to be some of the most beautiful women in the world and have attracted the admiration of numerous guys all around the world. While their stunning looks and lovely characters make them very popular among men, there are many things to think of when you're considering going out with Ukrainian girls.

It's important to bear in mind that people may have different needs and what one man doesn't want another man will. There are no specific pros and cons when it comes to dating, so all information given here should be taken with prejudice and you should ask what you really want and need to be happy.

Even though many Ukrainian ladies are well educated not all of them speak English fluently. On the other hand, those women who do not speak English well might not also have a lot of experience in typing and expressing their feelings. This could lead to misunderstandings and the communication between you could be a bit complicated in the beginning. You should remember that the Ukrainian alphabet is different from the English one and she is definitely doing everything she can to make you understand her. Be patient and read everything carefully. Don't ask questions that are too complicated and try not to use slang and cultural references.

It's also important to be aware of the fact that the culture of Ukraine is very different from other countries in many ways. Some of the differences are easy to notice while others are subtle and difficult to understand if you're a foreigner. One very obvious thing is that Ukrainian women love being feminine. They are proud of their looks and many of them disagree with the ideas that are spreading in western Europe. They tend to prefer more traditional roles and want to look great for their partners.

Some men don't have anything against feminine women who follow traditions. On the other hand, some men may see this as a sign of repression and may not feel comfortable when their partner is overprotecting. Some guys actually love strong women and wouldn't hesitate to do their own dishes or laundry. Both ways are all right, but you must remember that Ukrainian women are not stupid just because they enjoy their role as a housewife. Plenty of Ukrainian women go to college and proceed to have successful professional careers.

In some circles, Ukraine women are known for their dramatic and emotional outbursts. They tend to wear their hearts on their sleeves and they don't like hiding their true feelings. This is the reason why they are sometimes called "high maintenance". They don't mind this stereotype because they believe that expressing your feelings makes you healthier.

Being emotional can be seen as a negative or a positive thing. It is bad when you take it in the high maintenance sense as high emotions can lead to arguments and fights. On the other hand, lots of guys don't like the games that western women play and they complain about the women saying one thing while actually thinking something else. This won't happen to Ukrainian girls who are always honest about how they truly feel. Just make sure you treat your girl like a princess and she will definitely thank you for it.
